Kairos Outside {for women}

Why would you want to come?

If your life has ever been impacted by the imprisonment of a family member or friend you'll experience a weekend of understanding, encouragement and support.

What happens at a Kairos Outside Weekend?

A Kairos Outside for Women weekend gives you an opportunity to meet, listen to and talk with women who have struggled with similar issues resulting from having a relative or friend in prison. You will find an open and supportive environment, and the freedom to be yourself - no strings attached.

Who can attend?

Kairos Outside for Women is open to any adult female relative or supporter of a current or former prison inmate. While the program is based on Christian principles, you don't have to be a Christian to attend. Kairos Outside for Women is open to women from all backgrounds.

When are the weekends held?

Kairos Outside weekends are normally held once or twice a year, but this may vary from region to region.

What's the cost?

There is no cost for you to participate. Kairos Outside weekends are paid for by others who care about you and those in your situation.

Is there ongoing support after the Kairos Outside weekend?

YES! There is a reunion which is usually held every two months, and the chance to network with new friends who understand your situation.

What else does Kairos Offer?

Kairos also provides a similar Kairos Outside for Men weekend as well as a Kairos Inside short course run in male and female prisons. Kairos Torch is aimed at Juvenile offenders under 25 years of age. Visit the Kairos Website www.kairos.org.au to find out where Kairos courses are being held.
